

OKLAHOMA CITY TIMES

Published Every Evening Except Sunday by
THE OKLAHOMA PUBLISHING COMPANYR. E. STAFFORD.....Editor
E. K. GAYLORD.....General Manager
CHARLES W. BOGGS.....Business ManagerEastern and Western Representatives:
THE E. KATZ SPECIAL ADVERTISING AGENCY
15-17 Madison Square North, New York City.
224-226 Harris Trust Building, Chicago.
612 Waldfheim Bldg., Kansas City.Entered at the Oklahoma, Oklahoma, Postoffice as SECOND CLASS MAIL, under the Act of March 3, 1893.
PHONE PBX 5.SUBSCRIPTION RATES
By mail, one year.....$5.00
By mail, one year, with The Sunday Oklahoman.....$5.00
Oklahoma City Times and Daily Oklahoman
papers a weekly delivered by carrier in Oklahoma
City and vicinity, per week.....$1.50YESTERDAY'S CIRCULATION 27,664
DAILY AVERAGE FOR OCTOBER 27,323LINES WORTH REMEMBERING.
Happiness may be sought, thought or caught, but not bought.—ANONYMOUS.

HUGHES' LABOR SPONSOR.

THE only labor journal in the country which has been quoted approvingly by republican oracles to show that Candidate Hughes is labor's best friend is the Legislative Labor News, of Troy, N. Y. Recently "The Republican View," Edited by the Republican State Committee, quoted this journal at length for this purpose, in these columns:

That was a few days ago. Since that time the editor of the Legislative Labor News has been heard from. He gave a statement to the press last Saturday in which he said:

I have been supporting President Wilson for reelection, both in the columns of my paper and whenever I have had the opportunity to express my convictions orally, ever since he has accepted a nomination. Mr. Wilson has earned the unqualified support of every working-class organization in the land in his program of humanitarian legislation he has championed and put into effect at the national capital.

The quoted article in the issue of the Legislative Labor News of October, 1919, giving credit to the editor Hughes for his approval of labor laws while Governor of this state, is based on fact. A similar appreciation could have been given the unopposed election of every working-class representative to Congress in the program of humanitarian legislation he has championed and put into effect at the national capital.

As a candidate for president Mr. Hughes has declared his opposition to the Wilson program of legislation and seized upon the eight-hour day for railroad men to force the entire country to adopt it. He has also insisted that the rights and interests of organized labor must be protected, if need be, by declaring that it is intended congress into enacting a "wage law" designed to create extra wages for more than eight hours of work a day. The chief object of the railroad men and all other workers is to prevent more than eight hours work a day by exacting higher prices for extra hours.

There is no question that the administration of President Wilson is such that no wage-worker, whether a member of organized labor or not, should fail to support him for re-election.

'Till next.

Now that Virginia has entered the dry list, the liquor dealers of Bristol, Tenn., just across the line, will cater to the thirsty and become millionaires in the same class with the dealers of Cheyenne who supply Colorado, and the dealers of Joplin who minister to the dry throats of Oklahoma persons.

DER TAPFERE KAPITAN KOENIG.

WIEDER hatte der tapfere Deutsche Stromschnupper Kapitan Koenig eine Amerikanische Pfoste mit seinem unterschierigen Boot und seiner Schiffsladung der Waffen erreicht. Obgleich ein ansehnlicher Teil der Welt die Deutschen kriegerischen Methode nicht billigt, kommen alle den Seefahrer, der wieder seinen Weg durch den tiefen blauen Ozean auf seinen kommerziellen Auftrag gemacht hat, bewundern. Und alle werden die Tapferkeit dieses furchtlosen Seefahrers loben, und zugleich Zeit der Sicherheit in seinem Verfahren weit unter des Ozeans Wellen wünschen.

And now the county attorney may be called on to decide the difference between "gentlemen's agreements" and wagons on the election.

If you just cannot resist the desire to bet, make a wager with some of the home folk and keep the money in the family.

Chicago proposes to advance the prices of candy and soda; no mention was made of brandy and soda.

As an illustration of how to come back successfully, we respectfully refer to the feat of Captain Koenig.

Does any one know why some men sign their names so that the names cannot be read?

The claim that marriage is a failure is not half so true as being single is a failure.

MUTT AND JEFF—Jeff Is Certainly a Conscientious Little Guy. Is He Not?

JEFF, I KNOW HOW YOU CAN GET AN OVERCOAT. THERE'S AN OLD GUY WHO LIVES IN THAT OLD WHITE HOUSE DOWN THE STREET, WHO ALWAYS HANGS HIS OVERCOAT OUT ON THE CLOTHESLINE IN THE YARD EVERY NIGHT TO AIR OFF. JUST WALK DOWN AND COP IT.

OH, I COULDN'T! MY CONSCIENCE WOULD BOTHER ME AND I WOULD WANT TO PUT IT BACK AND WOULDN'T KNOW HOW!

GO AHEAD AND TRY IT. TAKE A WHISKBROOM ALONG AND IF YOUR CONSCIENCE BOTHERS YOU START TO BRUSH IT OFF AND TAKE IT BACK AND SAY IT FELL OFF THE LINE AND YOU WERE SIMPLY BRUSHING THE DUST OFF.

GET ME A WHISKBROOM.

(Copyright, 1916, by H. C. Fisher. Trade
Mark Registered U. S. Patent Office.)

BY BUD FISHER

Twenty Years Ago.

E. E. Brown and Seymour Price went to Guthrie this morning.

Chief Marshal Kane was in the city today.

Bishop Meerschaert arrived in the city yesterday.

J. O. Blakeney was an arrival from Shawnee last night.

Fifteen Years Ago.

Mrs. Elmer Kling has returned from a month's trip in Kansas.

Lawrence Mills, Texas '02, was an interested spectator at yesterday's football game.

The Pickwick Club is rejoicing over the return of one of their favorite members, Mr. F. C. Roberts, who has been in California for six months.

Miss Myrtle Garrison will arrive tomorrow for a visit with her cousin, Mrs. Ed Overholser.

Ten Years Ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wells have quite a party of relatives as their guests this week, among them being Mr. and Mrs. A. McGill of Riverside, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. Ira C. Wells and daughter of Seneca, Kan., and Mrs. Williams of Riverside, Cal.

Mrs. Samuel B. Laird and baby daughter returned Wednesday from Jonesboro, Tenn.

Mr. Frank Binda entertained last night with a Halloween party. All sorts of "spooky" games were enjoyed.

Lee Patrick of Stroud was in the city today.

RIPPLING RHYMES
By Walt Mason

Copyright 1916

HIGH PRICES.

OUR forebears, whose bright shades are soaring, where noble anthems swell, while here on earth did little roaring about H. C. of L. Of simple manners, they went plugging around the mundane scene; they had no wish to go chug-chugging, or burn up gasoline. To mother nature they were closer; they did not spend their grocer, but raised their garden sars. The barber seldom saw their money into his cashbox drop; when hair and whiskers got too tatty, their wives would shear the crop. They went to root at early gloaming, tired by the toilsome day; you never saw our grandfathers roaming along the great white way. They read no fiction, light and shallow, they sought no movie shows; they greased their boots with mutton tallow, and wore no underclothes. If they could journey back from Eden, and watch us for a spell, they'd understand, as we went 'spedlin' our fierce H. C. of L.

Another.

The City Hlick Who makes us weary, is he who does.

Tales: "Your in-querrey" — A Suffering Sterog.

HOGWALLOW LOCALS
BY GEORGE BINGHAM

(Copyright by George Matthew Adams)

Ellick Hellanger shot at a crow setting on the straw stalk pole on Muskrat Ridge Tuesday of this week. His gun hung fire and the crow was in great suspense while waiting to know its fate.

The Excelsior Fiddling Band serenaded the deputy constable last night. He has suspected foul play for some time and now he is convinced of it.

Miss Flutie Belcher is back from the teachers' institute at Tickville, and now lifts her eyebrows when she talks.

Sidney Hocks is building a fence around a pig he traded for last week.